Never farmed, and cleared, and in state of cultivation—two hundred acres excellent bottom land, nearly all of which is cleared.

The place is well improved, having a large two story Frame Dwelling, kitchen, dining room, smoke house, negro house, Cotton Gin, and Screw, together with a large young Orchard. All the upland is of good quality—fine for cotton and grain, and all the unclashed land is well timbered. Every field in the tract is well provided with water.

ALSO—SIX HUNDRED AND EIGHTEEN ACRES, known as the James A. Williams tract, situated eight miles from White Plains, on the Wedowee road, which is also well improved, having a large two story framed dwelling house, brick kitchen, and dining room, smoke house, negro house, Cotton Gin, and Screw, together with a large young Orchard. All the upland is of good quality—fine for cotton and grain, and all the unclashed land is well timbered. Every field in the tract is well provided with water.

Our Stock is more varied than usual, we have a number of new articles, which herefore we had no room to keep, as you can see good bargains.

Our Stock will meet a hearty welcome.

Punctual credit dealers will save money by trading with us. Call and examine our Goods before purchasing elsewhere.

PUNCH ON THE GREAT MANASSAS RACES.

[From the London Punch.]

Yankee Doodle went to war
On the high prairie,
What did he go fighting for?
Everlasting hunger!

Yankee Doodle was a chap
Who brought and swore lamentation.

He stuck a feather in his cap
And called it Federation.

Yankee Doodle, &c.

Yankee Doodle went forth
To conquer the Seabees;
All the journals of the leather's
Breathing shoulder, nose, and smoke.

Especially the latter;

His rage and fury to provoke
And vanity to flatter.

Yankee Doodle, &c.

Yankee Doodle having floored
His separated brothers,
He received his victorious sword.

He set his foot upon us again,
Screaming like a wild boar.

Wholly and furiously
And afterwards from Britain's crown,
He Canada would sever.

Yankee Doodle, &c.

England fighting neutral game
The gods made Yankees cross,

And did inflame his brazier;

As though with choleric drunk, he fumed,

And threatened vengeance mortal,
Because old England had presumed

To steer a course impartial.

Yankee Doodle, &c.

Yankee Doodle, Doolie in mind,
When England harassed, he did not mind;

Bless her and embarrassed,

He put himself in England's place,

And thought this injured nation,

Misses' view of trouble with a base,

Vindictive exultation.

Yankee Doodle, &c.

We for North and South alike
Entertain affection;

These for noisy slavery strike;

Those for forced protection.

Yankee Doodle is the pot;

Southern is the lid;

But madly, if not madly, if not

Reu of equal might.

Yankee Doodle, near Bull's Run, Met his adversary;

Fight fought, he'd won;

Fact proved quite contrary,

Paulie struck his fist, with speed

Of lightning glib, withunction

Of slippery grace, in full stampede.

The Secessionists in England.

Correspondence of the New York Times.

LONDON, AUGUST 24.

The news of the battle at Bull Run fell like a spark on gunpowder among the secessionists who have started them into a supernatural activity.

Whilst our credit sinks like lead, these busy hands are writing money articles for the Times, and pumping their ideas in the brain of that journal's city editor.

They are in the markets all over the country, bidding furiously against our Government for arms, and seem to have given up the blockade, in violation of all principles of human and civilized warfare.

Within the last week ships laden with cotton have reached Liverpool, having run the blockade.

It is positively known that the English are giving millions upon millions of money and hundreds of thousand of men to the Government for the service of the country, these enormous resources are used to the best advantage—the country does not repm from them, but they have it a right to expect—and they naturally look to the War Department as responsible for this disheartening disappointment.

We may be coerced and suppressed from enjoying the rights guaranteed to us by a free press through the Constitution, but we are not inclined to submit; but by illegal enactments; but by mob violence—NEVER! If our office is piled in ruins before this paragraph meets the eyes of our readers, we will issue another sheet inside of ten hours.

The Manchester, (England,) correspondent of the New York Times, says:

Within the last few days it is rumored that they have succeeded in equipping and sending off an armed steamer with a cargo of arms and ammunition for the Southern States; which has been for some time past quietly receiving its stores under the direction of a Liverpool firm in the American trade.

Or the particulars of this affair I am not informed; but it is said, still further, that the British Government, who called upon the members of the British Parliament to prevent the departure of the vessel, declined to interfere with the members of the Confederate States, in violation of all the principles of humanity.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Sept. 26, 1861.

FOR PRESIDENT:

JEFF. DAVIS,

OF MISSISSIPPI.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

A. H. STEPHENS,

OF GEORGIA.

For Representative in Congress,

HON. J. L. M. CURRY,

The Editor of this paper wishes to start, on a visit, to the army in Virginia, in a week or 10 days. We need some help from our patrons to pay for a lot of paper before we leave, and bear our expenses.

We feel sure, that nothing more than this intimation will be necessary to obtain aid from our generous patrons, who know how we have struggled to keep them regularly supplied with the most interesting and important news.

Hand in "a dollar or two," or send by mail at our risk, from distant parts of this & from adjoining counties, and it shall be promptly entered to your credit.

We have received, too late for insertion today, what will be given next week, a letter from Capt. H. C. Giesen, from Randolph County, dated 17th inst., at Richmond. He states that Col. Fry's 13th Regt., left for Yorktown on the 13th, leaving over 200 sick at Richmond, in the hospitals and private houses. Of the Randolphians, Capt. Aiken left 3d; Capt. T. M. Smith, 25; Capt. E. S. Smith, 14; and Capt. M. D. Robinson, & 10. Capt. G. had been sick and was slowly recovering from measles. Six or 8 Randolph men had died, and when the letter was written, Sergeant Payne, was supposed to be dying.

Capt. G. complaining (justly no doubt,) of the want of Physicians and attention to the sick. Why do not the government authorities obtain a sufficient number of physicians from every State of the Confederacy? Disease destroying more of our soldiers than the enemy; and we cannot hope for success or the blessing of Providence, so long as our sick and wounded are neglected.

The news in to-day's paper will be found very interesting, particularly from Kentucky and Western Virginia, and we therefore more cheerfully surrender our available space to the details. But in any event we have little to write about, these days, except to comment on the war news, there being no domestic news of political question, except which there is any controversy; and it needless to occupy space in communicating on a falsehood, treachery and cowardice of the enemies; or the folly, tyranny and enormities of the Lincoln Government, as it would be impossible, if desirable, to make our people hate them any worse than they do.

The first news of a victory in Kentucky is of a glorious victory of the Confederate forces, over more than twice their number, their news (if true) is very cheering; but there are many lies told and telegraphed of late, that we scarcely know what to believe, and much of the gratification we should otherwise feel at the reception of good news is blotted out by uncertainty.

The war has assumed gigantic proportions and the present position of affairs, which so much excites public excitement may be quickly summed up as follows. The tables are turned, and the people in many portions of the North are trembling with apprehensions of invasion from the South—Missouri is thoroughly aroused and rapidly driving the Federalists and Tories from her borders—New Mexico and Arizona are with us; and every Indian tribe west of Arkansas has joined the South—the first news from Kentucky is that of prompt and glorious victory—East Tennessee is with the South, and pouring out the brave and strong men of her mountains—Lee, Long, Wise, and Floyd, in Western Virginia are giving Tyler, and Rosecrans fits, and driving the Tories out of that section—Johnston and Beauregard are pressing on Washington, while Lincoln and his men have deserted the place—speedily delivered—no news from Maryland, and the Confederate batteries are now, or soon will be sufficiently advanced to close the Potomac against Lincoln's vessels.

The next speaker of the House of Representatives.

The second Monday in November next is the day set in our new Constitution, for the meeting of the Legislature of Alabama. In looking over the names of those elected Representatives—we find the name of the Hon. WALTER H. CRENshaw, elected from Butler county.

We respectfully present the name of Mr. Crenshaw for the next Speaker of the House of Representatives. He is a man of great moral worth and ability, of enlarged views, and varied attainments; has often, for the last twenty years, been both Representative and Senator in our Legislature, he has considerable experience in parliamentary rules for the government of Legislative bodies—so much so, that we think he is eminently qualified to preside as Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Drugs, Medicines, &c.—We have recently had a bill filed by P. L. Turner, Rome, Ga., and it afford us pleasure to testify in these times of blockade and high prices, to the prompt and correct dealing, and accommodating disposition of that gentleman. Every return will bring prompt and satisfactory answers to our enquiries, and our bill will be filled with articles of the very best quality at the most reasonable prices. We therefore earnestly recommend all persons in search, who may need Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Paints, Glass, Window Glass, &c. to send to P. L. Turner, Drugstore, Rome, Ga., and they will get their bills filled in the most accurate, prompt and satisfactory manner.

Socks and Shoes for the Army.—We saw the other day, at the shop of Mr. W. C. Laird, of this place, some of the neatest and most durable work of this sort, we have ever seen in the country. The Shoes and Boots are lined with leather and double sole and double soled throughout. Those who desire such work, either for the army or home use will find it most economical to get it from Mr. Laird.

Mr. T. W. Francis, Commissary of the 10th Ala Regt., arrived in our place from Massassas, on Saturday night last. He will remain several weeks, on furlough granted in consequence of ill health. He reports the general health of the Regiment much improved.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Blair & Frank, who still promises notwithstanding the blockade to sell goods at reasonable prices. Give them a call and see for yourselves.

We invite attention to the Notice of the Oxford Female Academy in another column, the next session of which will open under the superintendence of Miss. Clementine Snow, on the 1st of October next.

Miss Snow by her liberal education, and previous experience as Teacher in Female Colleges and Academies, is amply qualified for the duties of Principal of the Oxford Academy, and we hope that a discreet patronage will attest the proper appreciation of her abilities by the enlightened and liberal citizens of Oxford and vicinity.

Mr. Grant.—Permit me, through your columns, to publish the contributions of the Ladies' Soldier's Relief Society, up to the 21st instant, in aid of the sick, for several weeks past, has been chiefly directed to the purchase of winter clothing for the destitute soldiers, who have gone from different portions of our Country. The following is a correct report of contributions.

In order to understand the complete value of contributions, it may be necessary to say, full suit embraces 1 coat, 1 pr. pants, 2 pr. drawers, 2 pr. socks, 2 shirts, 1 pr. gloves, 1 pair of mittens, 1 necktie, 1 handkerchief, 1 pair of shoes.

LATEST NEWS

for the Times Reporter

From Richmond, Sept. 16.—Hon. L. P. Moore, Secretary of War has resigned, it is understood to-day that Actor General Johnston will attend ten days to the duties of the War Department. Several names have been suggested as successors to Gen. Walker, among them Bishop Polk and Engagement near Norfolk.

Norfolk, Sept. 16.—The Norfolk book of Saturday reports a naval engagement on the James' river on the Confederate steamer Patrick Henry, dropped off the river near Newport for the purpose of using the Federal vessels. Savannah, a large sloop-of-war, and the gunboat Try-rite, came to try the range of her guns.

Patrick Henry opened fire and Federal vessels replied. Try-rite brought up a broadside, which received a broadside in return.

Again she was met in and again forced to re-

The engagement lasted half an hour, and was only discontinued when it the Patrick Henry got out of James River.

With near Arlington Heights, Sept. 16.—Passenger cars to night report that a sharp engagement took place Friday last at Arlington Heights. A detachment of the Washington Artillery and of Winder's Regiment, attacked a house and burnt it. The engagement was four killed, 7 prisoned and many wounded. On the opposite side there were none injured.

New York—Vessels Seized

Governors Arrested and Releaser Sent to Ft. Lafayette.

New York, Sept. 17.—Vessels were seized this morning. Seven Southerners were arrested and the City of Manchester. Not reasonable being found they were sent to McMaster, the editor of Journal has been Fort La-

Kentucky—Confederates

strongly Posted—Huston's Bill

Approved.

Louisville:

Sept. 17.—General Zollicoffer is fourteen miles Kentucky, strongly posted at Cumberl. Perry, and Long Mountain.

McMaster's bill was postponed again.

Mobile—Banks Suspended

Special Payment.

Mobile,

Sept. 17.—In request of Governor Moore, the banks of Mobile have suspended specie payment, and take on deposit, and in case of debts, Confederates notes.

Richmond—Southern Express

Cox Surrounded by Wise,

Floyd and Loring and Fight Executed.

Richmond,

Sept. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury has the loan of the Southern Executive, for one hundred thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of its collecting agent of the Department.

Richmond—

to-morrow morning,

publish a letter from Leesburg,

that Wise, Floyd and Loring surrounded yesterday, and that was expected to-day.

From Virginia.

Richmond,

Sept. 18.—The Examiner of this morning says that another package of unsigned ten dollar Treasury notes has been stolen on the route from New Orleans. The Department has determined to suppress the whole issue of "tens" engraved by J. Manouvier, New Orleans.

Many Yankees are buying up their notes and endeavoring to escape before the expiration of the forty days, and many pseudo friends of the South are arriving from the North, to protect their property from Sequestration.

A shipment of Hessian prisoners for New Orleans will be made to day, which will be followed by a further consignment to-morrow.

RICHMOND,

Sept. 18.—The sequestration of Yankee effects has been going on at the rate of half million dollars daily for the past few days. The general inquiry is what is doing in other cities.

RICHMOND,

Sept. 18.—The Enquirer of this morning says that a large fleet has been lying off Hampton Roads during the present week. There is evidently no movement like that at Hamptons contemplated. The Federals are daily practicing with fifteen inch Columbiads at Point.

Twenty-two refugees from Maryland reached here yesterday, including two members of the Legislature. Many others preceded and will follow.

A perfect reign of terror exists in Maryland women violated, property destroyed, imprisonment and death!

RICHMOND,

Sept. 19.—The report of Lee's capture of Reynolds was telegraphed to Governor Fletcher, and from a source the Governor regarded as reliable; but substantial intelligence does not sustain the capture.

Nothing interesting from the camp.

From New Orleans.

New Orleans,

Sept. 20.—The Enquirer of this morning, in reporting the intelligence from Western Mass., says that General Lee cleared field and long used road leading strong position between Rosemont and Reynold's forces. Reynolds cannot retreat for the Jacksonians at the Ford of Cheat River, cannot advance for Lee's forces, are compelled to arrest them, or surrender are the only alternatives of Reynold's forces.

It is highly probable that a decisive engagement is over, etc. It will take some days to know the result.

The Examiner says Bragg has been a full General of the Confederacy.

A sailor was captured by the Federal steamer Massachusetts, but subsequently set adrift in a leaky boat, on account of refusing to take the oath.

A picket has arrived here, and reports that the enemy have nine bat-tions on Chancellors Island, and are expecting number to build houses and a hospital, and will be divided on the Islands in that neighbor hood. They also intend to fortify Ship Island, and prevent communication between New Orleans and Mobile.

Two hundred negroes left Holly

Springs, Miss., a few days ago, to work

on the fortifications near Randolph.

It is understood that the Federals re-

ated Arlington with ten thousand men Tuesday.

[FIRST DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND,

Sept. 19.—Hon. L. P. Moore, Secretary of War has resigned,

it is understood to-day that Actor

General Johnston will attend ten days to the duties of the War Department. Several names have been suggested as successors to Gen. Walker, among them Bishop Polk and Alfred M. Smith, of Kentucky.

He has his position in the Federal

Army, and soon enter the service of the Confederacy.

It is understood that the Federals re-

ated Arlington with ten thousand

men Tuesday.

Emerson Etheridge and Andy Johnson,

the renegade tories from Tennessee, are now supposed to be in Frankfort, Ky., as emissaries of the Lincoln

Government. So says the Louisville

Courier.

Two hundred negroes left Holly

Springs, Miss., a few days ago, to work

on the fortifications near Randolph.

It is understood that the Federals re-

ated Arlington with ten thousand

men Tuesday.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

MEMPHIS,

Sept. 19.—The Appeal of this morning says that Cleburne's brigade, now occupying Mayfield, about two miles from Paducah, and it is understood that reinforcements will be sent from other points. Whether this designs an attack on Paducah it is not known.

[THIRD DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND,

Sept. 19.—Ex-Secretary L. P. Walker, now Brigadier General, will probably have his command, Watts' Judge's and Bullock's Infantry Regiments, and Clanton's Cavalry Regiment, all from Alabama, with the Columbus (Ga.) Light Artillery Battalion.

The Richmond Examiner was sold by consent of the owners, at public order, for $15,000. Bought by John M. Davis. The paper will be continued as formerly.

[FOURTH DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND,

Sept. 19.—The body of Col. John A. Washington, Aid to Gen. Lee, reached here this afternoon.

Sixty-eight Hessian prisoners, taken in the mountains of Virginia, and fifteen from Maryland, arrived this afternoon on the Central train.

No news of interest from the Camps.

It is reported that the shelling of Lee's battery is still in progress.

The engagement lasted half an hour, and the Patrick Henry got out of James River.

To which they invite the attention of the citizens of Oxford and vicinity. We sell for short profits, and prompt paying customers will find it to their interest to trade with us. All we ask is, to compare our goods and prices with any in the County, and you see that, so far satisfied, we will make no other, keep constantly on hand every description of

FURNITURE,

AND

which they will sell at lower prices than any one else in the country. They will sell their work cheap, they mean exactly what they say, and only ask persons who may wish to purchase furniture, to call upon them and be convinced of the fact. They would call attention partic-

FEMALE ACADEMY.

Mrs. Mary D. Chidwell, Principal,

Miss Carrie Woodward, Associate.

The Trustees of this Institute, having been informed that they have secured the services of Mrs. Mary D. Chidwell, to take charge of the Academy, the exercises of which will begin on Monday the 15th of July next.

They will be conducted with Mr. Chidwell, and Miss Woodward, and the trustees have in mind, in ensuring those who have daughters or wards to educate, that every facility will be extended to young ladies and misses to secure for themselves a thorough and an accomplished education.

The rates will be the same as heretofore established by the Board.
